You Tell Em!

If we just wanted to add a few more personalities, we'd say, "You tell 'em, Bill Sidney we intend to brave the ire(sic) of some aggressive businessmen, and say, "You tell 'em, Tecon, you've got the ideas!" It's a shame your (sic) hesitate to offer decent (sic) profit for decent (sic) at least enough to realize their (sic) possibilities. Etc. (sic) imitated.

"If Note—There's a question, however, as to whether some (sic) would be willing to pay enough for (sic) to make (sic) worth while. This statement (sic) correct. You can't (sic) contract to (sic) for less than (sic) cost. Recently (sic) Blessing (sic) to the worship of other (sic) to the (sic) God's hatred (sic) of idolatry (sic) upon those who walked in that (sic) ways.

Note in verse 5 that these things were done "secretly." The same (sic) of those who (sic) to be the people of God. The (sic) between (sic) and the world is not clearly (sic). It will be note carefully (sic) that the (sic) of Israel's (sic) in verse 6 (sic) that (sic) Israel (sic) these things secretly did not hide them from the eyes of Jehovah. Ps. 139:1, 2. Heb. 4:13.

The statement in verse 20 is a (sic) prophet had re- (sic) destruction of the nation. Now the (sic) God's people (sic) no longer stand to look upon their (sic) and to avoid (sic) them "out of his sight." That is to say, (sic) they had been forgotten or that God (sic) them. He was (sic) in manner and love, but that he had to (sic) them for their sins and for a time (sic) them. Such judgment (sic) according to repentance (sic) is the reason for a nation's deterioration, and with Israel (sic) were the reasons. Outstanding among them is the one (sic) which they were rebuked by Isaiah in the verse (sic) noted, namely, drunkenness:

1. Deceived by Drink (Isa. 28:7-8).

The picture here is a graphic one (sic) leaders of Israel. There called Ephraim, inspired long ago (sic) bought (sic) wine and is then drunken (sic) the (sic) of the valley. Samaria, their capital city was so (sic) actually at the head of a valley that it was not only beautiful (sic) but (sic) safe from attack by the enemy.

The drunkard spoke with pride of their nation and of Samaria its crown. The description was (sic) it was beautiful situated on a (sic) fertile valley. Its (sic) ten fortified cities, which were (sic) to be known as Israel. However, Jeroboam, and the two southern tribes, which were (sic) the kingdom of Judah.

Through (sic) marriage with God's (sic) and might have led his people (sic), but instead he became the (sic) and (sic) stood (sic) to wicked- (sic) (see I Kings 16:31). The story (sic) Israel is a sad picture of (sic) and failure.

Through varied experiences and (sic) of kings, Israel had (sic) down, down, down in its (sic) and departure from God.

2. Doomed by Sin (I Kings 17:1; 18:21).

How (sic) had struck what God's (sic) to them. Verse 1 relates that (sic) a severe drought (sic) Ahab, and verses 2-6 tell us the (sic) for that judgment.

Concerning (sic) blessing (sic) led
